COVENANT

Having been led by the Spirit of God to profess our faith in Jesus Christ, and having been baptized in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, we do now joyfully and solemnly affirm our covenant with God and with one another.

We promise to serve Christ in the fellowship of this congregation. We will strive to love one another, to remember one another in prayer, to share in each other's joys, and to sustain each other in times of distress. We aspire to be a fellowship of the concerned: where the lost may find Jesus Christ, sinners may find pardon, seekers may find meaning for their lives, and where all who come may find welcome. We pledge to be responsible church members through faithful attendance, study of God's Word, and giving from all our resources.

We seek to be obedient to Christ in our daily living. In our homes, in our labor, and while at leisure, we will strive for attitudes and actions which reflect God's Spirit working within us and through us. Believing that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, we will endeavor to avoid experiences and habits which defile and harm our body and hinder our witness.

Bound together in a fellowship of faith with all who confess Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, we will pray and work for a spirit of unity among all Christians.

Believing that our call to be a church is a call to witness in the world, we dedicate ourselves anew as servants of the Lord of all life. As we pledge our support to the work of missionaries throughout the world, we commit ourselves to the mission to which God calls us all. Whenever people are in bondage to ignorance, poverty, fear, or prejudice, we will strive for justice, freedom, dignity, and peace. Whenever people are separated by barriers of hostility, distrust, and loneliness, we will be ministers of God's reconciling love.

Acknowledging our human frailties and ever seeking forgiveness, we profess our need of the Holy Spirit to empower us, and commit our lives anew to Jesus Christ, and through Him to the care, judgment, deliverance, and mercy of Almighty God. Amen.
